WELCOME TO OUR NEWSLETTER!

Spring has sprung, and we can't wait to share our two most exciting community updates this month! First and foremost, you may see a new friendly face around the studio. Mr. Geordie (a potential new teacher) is touring and observing to get a feel for how lessons and classes work at Pittsburgh Music House. We're crossing our fingers he'll be able to join us by summertime. If you see him, make sure to say "hi and welcome!"

Secondly, we are very excited to be starting the super long process of getting our driveway paved and expanded in the back. By "super long" we mean about one year. But, we want you to know that we're getting our ducks in a row so that our students and families can come and go from lessons more safely. Keep reading for more, and thank you so much for being part of our community!

Warmly,
Miss Brooke

SUMMER ENSEMBLE CAMP

Our studio will be closed for summer break from June 22nd (the day after the recital) to July 5th. We will reopen on July 6th. If your child can't bear to stop making music over break, Miss Shannon and Mr. Taylor are hosting an ensemble camp from June 23rd-28th, 8:30-11:30 AM at Pittsburgh Music House.

Open to 12 students, ages 10-16 (all instruments welcome), groups will be placed by ability level into quartets and will work together to prepare one piece of music throughout the week with help from our coaches (Miss Shannon and Mr. Taylor).

Tuition: $350 (the cost of a daily hour-long lesson).

Activities Include:

- A warm welcome from Jorbi and Ms. Brooke
- Group games and exercises
- Chamber music workshops
- Snack time
- Morning yoga
- Small group rehearsals
- Coaching with Ms. Shannon and Mr. Taylor
- Video editing workshop
- Solo and group performances

Keep an eye out for a registration form. Text ENSEMBLE to 412-646-0157 to get your child's name on our list for camp!

OUR SUMMER RECITAL!

Our summer recital is on Saturday June 21st at Ruckus Cafe, with sessions from 2-8 PM (likely 4 total). Everyone is welcome, even if you or your child just started lessons! This is a low-pressure event where students can share what they've been working on while the audience enjoys snacks and drinks. If you'll be on vacation, let us know—we'll find another way for your child to showcase their progress!

Adults are welcome to participate as well! We are working on developing an Adults-Only session by the next recital. There is a chance we will be able to add an Adults-Only session to our June recital, but we need to wait until we receive all of our RSVP's to make a final decision.

Recital registration forms are located on the high top table at the front of the studio. Let your teacher know if you need help locating a form. RSVP's are due on Monday April 28th and time slot reservations are first-come, first-served.

YOGA AT THE MUSIC HOUSE

WHY IS THERE YOGA AT THE MUSIC HOUSE?

Yoga and music share deep connections through rhythm, breath, movement, and mindfulness. At Pittsburgh Music House, we offer yoga because both music and yoga cultivate focus, relaxation, and body awareness—important elements for both musicians and everyday life.

This month, our yoga classes are following a different schedule. We want to make sure that as many families and students as possible get a chance to try a class at a time that is convenient for them. If you do not see a time that works for you, or wish that you could do yoga before, during, or after your child's (or your own) lesson time, please text "YOGA" to 412-646-0157. We hope to see you at a class soon!
